

Artwork Title: Making our way

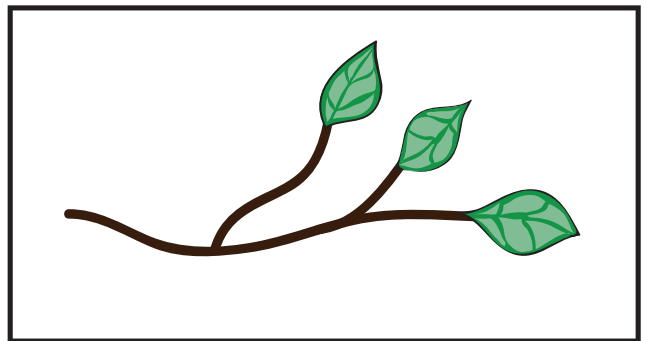

8 groups representing states and territories

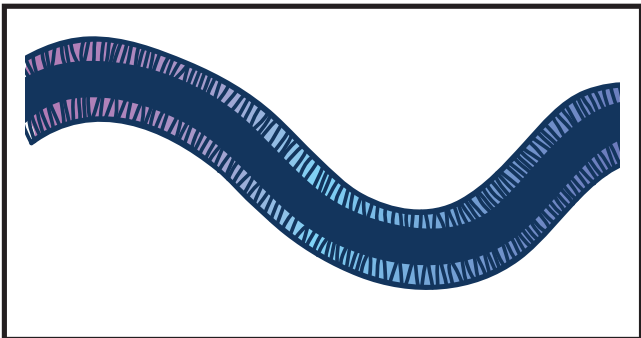

The people that live in each group

The knowledge you gather in your reconciliation journey

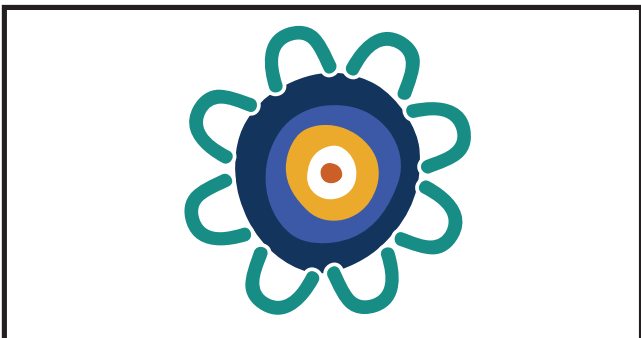

The beauty you create through collaboration and learning and and indication of resources and where they go

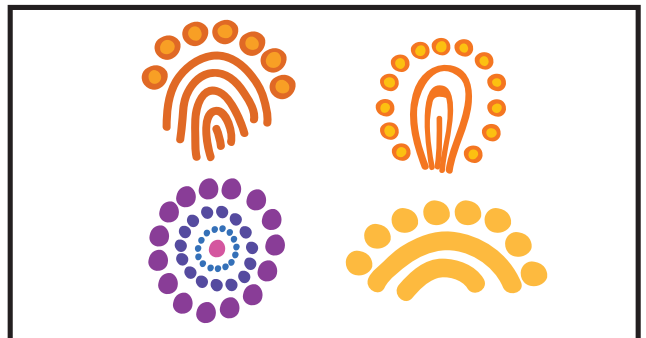

The paths you take on your reconciliation journey

The colours and textures of the different countries, and a reflection of the needs both large and small of each group.

Sitting, yarnning, learning and connecting

The funds that are available to be shared